

Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic®
The 2010 Marion Huber Learning Through Listening® Awards
For RFB&D® Members who are High School Seniors with Learning Disabilities

DEADLINE: Applications must be postmarked no later than February 1, 2010.

ABOUT THE AWARD

Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic (RFB&D), a nonprofit volunteer organization, is the nation's educational library serving people who cannot effectively read standard print because of visual impairment, dyslexia or other physical disability. Our mission is to create opportunities for individual success by providing, and promoting the effective use of, accessible educational materials.

Each year, the Marion Huber Learning Through Listening (LTL®) awards are presented to RFB&D members who are high school seniors with learning disabilities, in recognition of academic excellence, outstanding leadership, and service to others.

Marion Huber made her first gift of $200 to RFB&D in 1959. By 1990, she was making gifts in the range of $20,000. Marion was particularly focused on RFB&D's expanded mission, reaching out to students with learning disabilities. She observed the power of "Learning Through Listening" to transform lives, and it was for this reason that she endowed our award for students with dyslexia and other disabilities that prevent effective reading. By creating a permanent endowment, Marion Huber ensured that the work she valued during her lifetime continues today.

Offered since 1991, the awards are given to six students who are chosen by a selection committee. RFB&D presents the three top winners $6,000 each and three special honors winners $2,000 each. The three top winners will be presented with their awards at an event to be announced.

Applicants should be aware that:

- As a top winner, you must be present at the celebratory event in order to receive your award.
- All winners may be asked to represent RFB&D as a spokesperson and advocate at various local and national events. Costs associated with these events will be covered by RFB&D.

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

Only fully completed applications will be considered for the awards. Please DO NOT include further information (such as news clippings, photos or additional references) other than that which has been specifically asked for. Such information will not be considered and will not be returned.

Documents must be paper-clipped together (do not staple) in the following order:

- A fully completed and signed personal application (Form 1)
- Essay – with your name at the top of each page
- List of honors, achievements and community activities
- Two letters of recommendation on official school letterhead with two signed referral forms (Form 2)
- An official school transcript

Any questions regarding the awards may be directed to RFB&D at 609-243-7087 or e-mail mgreenwald@rfd.org.
